the universalism of human pdf

The United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights can be read as assuming a kind of moral universalism. The drafting committee of the Universal Declaration did assume, or at least aspired to, a "universal" approach to articulating international human rights.

Moral universalism - Wikipedia

Universalism is a theological and philosophical concept that some ideas have universal application or applicability. [citation needed] A community that calls itself universalist may emphasize the universal principles of most religions, and accept others in an inclusive manner.
